

Could your horse be suffering from gastric ulcers?

50% of leisure horses are affected*

Some common symptoms include:

- Poor performance
- Changes in behaviour
- Colic
- Girthing pain
- Poor coat condition
- Weight loss or failure to maintain condition

Gastroscopy is the only accurate way of diagnosing ulcers

Upcoming gastroscopy days:

Wednesday 29th June

at Ratley Lodge OX15 6DT

Contact us to find out more or book a space

Please contact us on

01295 670501

or email us on reception@avonvaleequine.co.uk

Once diagnosed using gastroscopy, gastric ulcers can be treated quickly and effectively with medication and horses usually return to their former level of performance.

